

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

HR Administrative Assistant (FG III) EIT (Budapest)

Ref.: EIT/CA/2015/102

The European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT), established on 11 March 2008 by the European Parliament and the Council, aims to become a flagship for excellence in European innovation. The EIT is the first European initiative to integrate fully the three sides of the 'Knowledge Triangle' (higher education, research, business-innovation) and will seek to stand out as a world-class innovation-oriented reference model, inspiring and driving change in existing education and research institutions. Conceived with a clear market-driven focus, the EIT will favour sustainable economic growth and job creation throughout the Union by generating new skills, products, services and business responding both to public demand and to the needs of the knowledge economy.

The EIT is now organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list for Contract Staff (CA) for the profile of HR Administrative Assistant. The place of employment will be Budapest, where the EIT seat is located.

More information about the EIT, its structure and activities can be found at: <http://eit.europa.eu>.

The job

1 Profile

The HR Administrative Assistant, as part of the HR and Talent Management team, will provide support and contribute to the correct and effective implementation of HR processes, in accordance with the EU procedures and regulations and towards the achievement of the team's objectives in various areas of staff administration.

1.1 Tasks

The HR Administrative Assistant will support the work of the EIT by performing the following tasks:

- Provide administrative support and contribute to the correct implementation of HR processes in staff administration in accordance with the EU Staff Regulations and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities (CEOS)
- Provide organisational support related to selection procedures
- Assist in the induction process of newcomers (welcome pack, introduction to internal administrative procedures and processes, training programmes, installation, etc.) and in the administrative procedures for staff leaving the Institute
- Assist in performance evaluation and reporting procedures and in the maintenance of information on career, posts and job descriptions
- Assist in the planning, organisation and monitoring of training activities, including the budgetary preparation and follow-up
- Analyse, follow-up and report on working time-, leave- and absences-related matters
- Contribute to the maintenance of the HR section on the intranet and contribute towards an efficient internal communication on HR matters
- Assist in HR-related financial transactions and act as the backup for payroll activities
- Contribute to the preparation of public procurement procedures in the relevant areas of activity
- Participate in the development, implementation and follow-up of staff policies, implementing rules, procedures and internal guidelines
- Provide information to internal and external queries and ensure follow-up of correspondence (HR functional mailbox)
- Support in the maintenance of the HR database and archiving system
- Contribute to the effective functioning and cooperation within the HR team and to maintaining a service-oriented culture
- Other administrative tasks, as required in the interest of the service

2 Eligibility criteria

The Selection process

4 How to apply

Please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website. It contains detailed instructions to help you submit your application correctly.

Only applications submitted through the EU CV Online system⁷ will be accepted.

To apply, you must register in the EU CV Online system via the link provided on the EIT website, and follow all instructions concerning the various stages of the procedure. Applications shall be made in English. Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy Internet traffic or a problem with the Internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to an interview (see section 5.3).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. Please note that if you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered!

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 15 April 2015 at midday (12:00 Budapest time)

⁷ The EU CV Online, managed by the European Commission, is the tool used by the EIT for recruitment purposes. Instructions of use can be found on the EIT's Guide for Applicants, on the EIT website.

5 Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the general and specific conditions described in Section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria under Section 3.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in Section 1.1.

5.3 Written tests and interview

Upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, the 8 most suitable candidates for the post - based on the highest scores in the pre-selection screening - will be invited to undergo written tests and an interview, which will be held in Budapest. Details of the time, date and address of the tests and interview will be communicated to candidates in due time.

Candidates invited to this stage of the selection procedure will be requested to submit electronically, prior to the tests/interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

The written tests shall consist of the following components, in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised:

- General aptitudes and language abilities to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties
- Knowledge of European integration and institutions, the European Institute of Innovation and Technology
- Specific competencies with reference to their profiles

The above-mentioned components can be combined.

An interview with the selection committee will take place on the same day as the written test. The selection committee will then carry out an assessment of the candidate according to the selection criteria described in Section 3.

The interview and written test will be conducted in English. Any other languages indicated in the application form might be tested. Note: native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The application of candidates invited to the interview will be checked against supporting documents provided, in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

You will also be disqualified if you:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list, which will be drawn up in order of merit. This draft will be submitted to the Appointing Authority of the EIT for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2015. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the EIT. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the EIT (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the EIT. Moreover, recruitment will be subject to budgetary availability.

5.6 Information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have a question, please consult the Guide for applicants on the EIT website. If you have further questions, please contact the EIT via jobs@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the vacancy notice, your registration number and the nature of your request.

Please note that due to the large volume of applications received, only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.

Staff not entitled to the household allowance: € 31.83 per day for a period of 120 days. This allowance is not paid beyond the date on which staff members effectively remove their belongings to Budapest.
- Annual travel allowance: staff entitled to expatriation or foreign residence allowance are entitled to be paid each calendar year a sum equivalent to the cost of travel from the place of employment to the place of origin for themselves and, if they are entitled to the household allowance, for their spouse and dependant(s). This is a flat-rate payment, based on an allowance per kilometre of geographical distance between the staff member's place of employment and place of recruitment or origin.

Other features of working conditions applicable at the EIT are:

- Annual leave entitlement of two days per calendar month plus additional days depending on grade and age. 2,5 days' home leave per annum if you are entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance.
- General and applicable technical training plus professional development opportunities.
- EU Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme, accident and occupational disease insurance coverage, unemployment and invalidity allowance.
- After 10 years of service, staff members are eligible to receive pension from the European Union Pension Scheme.

6.6 Independence and declarations of interest

The job holder will be required to enter into a commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make complete declarations of any direct or indirect interests that might be considered prejudicial to his or her independence.

6.7 Appeal procedure

Candidates considering that their interests have been prejudiced in the selection process by a particular decision may request a review of, or launch an appeal against the decision adversely affecting them. Further information about the appeal procedures can be found in the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website.

6.8 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the EIT ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.
