

Call for applications

Partnerships Management Officer (AD 8)

EIT (Budapest)

Ref.: EIT/TA/2015/110

The European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT) is an independent EU body set up in 2008. We enhance Europe's ability to innovate by nurturing entrepreneurial talent and supporting new ideas. Our mission is to:

- Contribute to the competitiveness of Europe, its sustainable economic growth and job creation by promoting and strengthening synergies and cooperation among businesses, education institutions and research organisations.
- Create favourable environments for creative thoughts, to enable world-class innovation and entrepreneurship to thrive in Europe.

The EIT is an integral part of Horizon 2020, the EU's Framework Programme for Research and Innovation. Horizon 2020 is a key pillar of the Innovation Union – a Europe 2020 flagship initiative that aims to enhance Europe's global competitiveness.

The EIT is now organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list for Temporary Staff (TA) for the profile of Partnerships Management Officer. The place of employment will be Budapest, where the EIT seat is located.

More information about the EIT and its activities can be found on: <http://eit.europa.eu>.

1 The job profile

Within the EIT's "Partnerships Management" Unit (PAM), the Officer will be leading the 'Grant Implementation (first wave KICs)' Section. The jobholder will contribute with the necessary experience, skills and seniority to help shape the EIT's current and future partnerships with its KICs (Knowledge and Innovation Communities).

The Partnerships Management Officer will be responsible for managing, monitoring and evaluating the operational activities of KICs, by coordinating the work of the unit's section in this field. In doing so, the jobholder will not only ensure the operational business but also help support a sound knowledge management base to implement grant operations as well as identify up-to-date KIC information and good practice. The job holder will work under the supervision of the responsible Head of Unit. Close co-operation with other parts of the unit, other EIT units, the EIT Director and Governing Board, and other stakeholders will be an important component of his/her duties.

1.1 Tasks

The Partnerships Management Officer will contribute to the EIT respective Unit's work by performing the following tasks:

- Be responsible for setting up effective coordination of tasks, procedures and workflows of the Section;
- Coordinate the preparation of inputs to the Single Programming Document (SPD), Annual Activity Report (AAR) and other planning and reporting documents of the EIT;
- Contribute to the effective planning and management of the operational aspects of the ex-ante assessment of KIC annual business plans and reports and contribute to the development the Unit annual work plan on the basis of the priorities of the EIT;
- Manage, support and advice to ensure effectiveness of grant management processes by analysing their use, measuring their impact, and preparing proposals for continuous improvement; through benchmark and close dialogue with KICs;
- Provide accurate planning and timely reports on progress against targets against well-established business grant cycles accorded with the KICs;
- Provide advice and support to the preparation for negotiation of the technical, financial and legal aspects of the EIT grants to the KICs;
- Contribution to the on-site monitoring of the implementation of KIC grants;
- Preparing for the annual review of KIC activities by the Governing Board, under the supervision of the Head of Unit Partnerships Management;
- Follow-up the activities and development of KICs including the tracking of KICs through an agreed set of indicators;
- Support the development of quality procedures, indicators and benchmarks for monitoring (and assessment of) the performance of KIC activities with specific reference to the improvement of the KIC Grant Management Cycle;
- Liaise with the European Commission services, in particular DG EAC regarding general EU policy orientations under the supervision of the EIT Director and the Head of Unit PAM on his behalf;
- Other tasks in relation to KIC operational activities as deemed necessary.

4 The Selection process

4.1 How to apply

Please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website. It contains detailed instructions to help you submit your application correctly.

Only applications submitted through the EU CV Online system⁶ will be accepted.

To apply, you must register in the EU CV Online system via the link provided on the EIT website, and follow all instructions concerning the various stages of the procedure. Applications shall be made in English. Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy Internet traffic or a problem with the Internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to an interview (see section 5.3).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. Please note that if you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered!

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 3 November 2015 (12:00 noon Budapest time)

⁶The EU CV Online, managed by the European Commission, is the tool used by the EIT for recruitment purposes. Instructions of use can be found on the EIT's Guide for Applicants, on the EIT website.

5 Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the general and specific conditions described in section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria described in section 3.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in section 1.1.

5.3 Interview

Upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, the 12 most suitable candidates for the post - based on the highest scores in the pre-selection screening - will be invited to an interview, which will be organised in Budapest. Details of the time, date and address of the interview will be communicated to the candidates in due time.

Candidates invited to an interview will be requested to submit by email, prior to the interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Candidates will also be requested to submit a non-official translation of all supporting documents written in a language other than English.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

The selection committee will carry out an assessment of candidates invited to an interview according to the selection criteria described in section 3. The interview and the written test will be conducted in English. Any other languages indicated in the application form might be tested. Note: native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills.

Candidates may also be required to sit a written test in English on the day of the interview. This might take the form of a case study, multiple-choice questionnaire and/or oral presentation.

The written tests may consist of the following components, in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised:

- Specific competencies with reference to the profile
- General aptitudes and language abilities to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties
- Knowledge of European integration and institutions; the European Institute of Innovation and Technology

These components can be combined.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The application of candidates invited to the interview will be checked against supporting documents provided, in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Appointing Authority of the EIT for approval. The adopted reserve list, which will be in order of merit, will be valid until 31 December 2016. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the Appointing Authority of the EIT. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the EIT (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the EIT. Moreover, recruitment will be subject to budgetary availability.

5.6 Information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have a question, please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website. If you have further questions, please contact the EIT via jobs@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the vacancy notice, your registration number and the nature of your request.

Please note that due to the large volume of applications received, only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.

Other important information

6 General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The EIT applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

6.2 Selection committee

A selection committee will be appointed to carry out the evaluation of applications to this vacancy. Please note that the Selection Committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden, and may lead to disqualification from the selection process.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take a few months to be completed; further information about the status of the procedure will be published on the EIT website.

6.4 Recruitment conditions / Career

Successful candidates may be offered a contract as a member of the Temporary Staff in accordance with Article 2f of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities for an initial period of 5 years. The contract may be renewed.

The place of employment will be Budapest.

6.5 Conditions of employment

Successful applicants who are offered a contract of employment will, on entry into service, be placed in step 1 or 2 of grade AD 8, according to the length of their professional experience. The estimated net monthly salaries for Temporary Staff at the grades mentioned above, as at 1 January 2015 in Budapest⁷ are:

Step 1: € 3.419,88

- Installation allowance: equivalent to two months' basic salary for staff entitled to the household allowance; and one month's basic salary for staff members who are not entitled to the household allowance. This allowance is paid upon successful completion of the probationary period
- Reimbursement of removal costs.
- Initial temporary daily subsistence allowance: staff entitled to the household allowance: € 39.48 per day for a period of 180 days; if you are a probationer, the daily subsistence allowance is granted for the period of probation plus one month. Staff not entitled to the household allowance: € 31.83 per day for a period of 120 days. This allowance is not paid beyond the date on which staff members effectively remove their belongings to Budapest.

⁷ This estimate already includes a correction coefficient of 71.4%, currently applied to salary and allowances paid in Budapest. Deductions for the community tax and contributions for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance are already included in this estimate. Salaries are exempted from national tax. The salary can be paid in euro or in the local currency: Hungarian Forint (HUF).

- Annual travel allowance: staff entitled to expatriation or foreign residence allowance are entitled to be paid each calendar year a sum equivalent to the cost of travel from the place of employment to the place of origin for themselves and, if they are entitled to the household allowance, for their spouse and dependant(s). This is a flat-rate payment, based on an allowance per kilometre of geographical distance between the staff member's place of employment and place of recruitment or origin.

Other features of working conditions applicable at the EIT are:

- Annual leave entitlement of two days per calendar month plus additional days depending on grade and age. 2,5 days' home leave per annum if you are entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance.
- General and applicable technical training plus professional development opportunities.
- EU Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme, accident and occupational disease insurance coverage, unemployment and invalidity allowance.
- After 10 years of service, staff members are eligible to receive pension from the European Union Pension Scheme.

6.6 Independence and declarations of interest

The job holder will be required to enter into a commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make complete declarations of any direct or indirect interests that might be considered prejudicial to his or her independence.

6.7 Appeal procedure

Candidates considering that their interests have been prejudiced in the selection process by a particular decision may request a review of, or launch an appeal against the decision adversely affecting them. Further information about the appeal procedures can be found in the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website.

6.8 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the EIT ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.
