

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Legal Corporate Officer (AD8) EIT (Budapest)

Ref.: EIT/TA/2013/89

The European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT), established on 11 March 2008 by the European Parliament and the Council, aims to become a flagship for excellence in European innovation. The EIT is the first European initiative to integrate fully the three sides of the 'Knowledge Triangle' (higher education, research, business-innovation) and will seek to stand out as a world-class innovation-oriented reference model, inspiring and driving change in existing education and research institutions. Conceived with a clear market-driven focus, the EIT will favour sustainable economic growth and job creation throughout the Union by generating new skills, products, services and business responding both to public demand and to the needs of the knowledge economy.

The EIT is now organising a Call for applications with a view to establishing a reserve list for Temporary Agents for the position of Legal Corporate Officer for the implementation of the simplification agenda. The place of employment will be Budapest (Hungary), where the EIT seat is located.

More information about the EIT, its structure and activities can be found on: <http://eit.europa.eu>.

The job

1 Profile

The Legal Corporate Officer will report to the EIT Director. The Officer will be the focal point regarding the EIT's internal and external reports on legal aspects of institutional or strategic initiatives run by the EIT, including a pro-active and coordinating role in the decision making processes of the Governing Board and the Director. With a view to contributing to the positioning of the EIT as a role model in terms of efficient and simplified management within the framework of the EU Institutions and Bodies, the Officer will be responsible for the identification and definition of a simplified internal legal framework and for the coordination of the legal dimension of the activities of the EIT. The Officer will have an active role in the monitoring of conflict of interest situations, in grant management and in the development of a quality management system.

1.1 Tasks

- Provide legal advice on the validity and liability related to acts and decisions prepared by the EIT, by developing corporate policies and strategic perspectives;
- Analyse, monitor and contribute in the development of the legal framework applicable to the EIT, with a view to applying a simplified and burden reduction approach;
- Develop a quality management system for an internal operational model which should combine the application of the internal control standards with the proper implementation of the procedures and compliance processes as well as the antifraud and ethics systems;
- Analyse, monitor, report and give advice to the management on matters involving the constitution and governance structure to ensure effective practices are in place and executed and by managing the relevant impact;

- Provide support to the EIT Director by coordinating and facilitating any communication between the EIT and relevant stakeholders on legal issues and corporate matter;
- Supervise and manage the provision of legal services, through either internal personnel or external counsel, to meet the strategic objectives of the EIT;
- Ensure that compliance procedures, legal policies and documentation are in place to support the EIT activities from a regulatory perspective and monitor the effectiveness of legal risk controls and identify control gaps;
- Facilitate the decision-making processes by providing legal input and by ensuring proper follow-up;
- Develop, in cooperation with the relevant internal stakeholders, the processes and model documents needed to ensure successful conclusions of grant agreements;
- Provide legal advice related to grant procedures and prepare legal guidance notes about the interpretation of the provisions of the grant agreements;
- Provide legal advice on staff, financial and contractual matters;
- Act as ICS Coordinator by contributing to the reporting on the prioritisation and implementation of Internal Control (including relevant parts of the Annual Activity Report) under the responsibility of the Authorising Officer, and in cooperation with the Units;
- Manage relationships with external lawyers and contractors when it is appropriate;
- Conduct extensive legal research, provide detailed analysis of assigned matters and prepare legal opinions, legal instruments and documents on the application and interpretation of the prescribed rules and procedures as well as any other applicable legal provisions;
- Carry out any other tasks as requested by the hierarchical supervisor.

English. Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy Internet traffic or a problem with the Internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to an interview (see section 5.3).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. Please note that if you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered!

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 17 September 2013 at midday (12:00 Budapest time)

5 Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the general and specific conditions described in Section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria described in Section 3.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in Section 1.1.

5.3 Interview

Upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, the 8 most suitable candidates for the post - based on the highest scores in the pre-selection screening - will be invited to an interview, which will be organised in Budapest (Hungary). Details of the time, date and address of the interview will be communicated to the candidates in due time.

Candidates invited to an interview will be requested to submit by email, prior to the interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

The selection committee will carry out an assessment of candidates invited to an interview according to the selection criteria described in Section 3. The interview will be conducted in English. Candidates may also be required to sit a written test in English on the day of the interview. This might take the form of a case study, multiple-choice questionnaire and/or oral presentation.

The written tests may consist of the following components, in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised:

- Specific competencies with reference to the profile,
- General aptitudes and language abilities to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties,

- Knowledge of European integration and institutions, the European Institute of Innovation and Technology.

These components can be combined.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' application will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Appointing Authority of the EIT for approval. The adopted reserve list, which will be in order of merit, will be valid until 31 December 2014. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the Appointing Authority of the EIT. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the EIT (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the EIT. Moreover, recruitment will be subject to budgetary availability.

5.6 Information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have a question, please consult the Guide for applicants on the EIT website. If you have further questions, please contact the EIT via jobs@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the vacancy notice, your registration number and the nature of your request. Please note that due to the large volume of applications received, only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.
