3. The Selection process

3.1 How to apply

Candidates must submit their application electronically. Their application has to be composed of a duly signed CV Europass format⁶ and a motivation letter (maximum one page). Applications must be sent to traineeship@eit.europa.eu by the closing date and the subject title must include "SURNAME Name + Reference of the Call for applications".

Candidates should clearly state in their application for which of the announced traineeship opportunities they are applying. Each traineeship position requires separate application.

Candidates are requested to send their application in English, the working language of the EIT. Please note that only complete applications containing the above mentioned documents (CV and a motivation letter) and sent within the deadline will be taken into consideration. Please note that only the candidates selected for a traineeship will receive notification.

Deadline for applications: 17-July-2017 (12:00 noon Budapest time)

3.2 Admission to the selection procedure

The eligibility check is completed by the EIT HR which draws up a list of candidates to be considered. Based on this list, the pre-selection is carried out by a Committee made up of EIT staff. Successful applicants are selected on the basis of motivation, qualifications and/or experience.

The final selection is made by the EIT Interim Director /Head of Unit PAM/ Head of Unit SAF (depending on the profile indicated by the candidate) based on the CV of the shortlisted candidates. They select the most appropriate candidates according to the established "profile". Candidates may be required to undergo an interview at the EIT or by phone/Skype. The final selection is confirmed by the EIT Interim Director.

The shortlist will be valid until 31 December 2017. The work of the Committee is confidential and its decisions are final.

3.3 Recruitment procedure

Successful applicants are informed by letter of the dates of the traineeship and the list of final documents they should provide prior to commencement of the traineeship.

Recruited trainees are obliged to provide any forms and certificates required by the EIT HR at the time of their recruitment. They are responsible for ensuring that they have the valid documents to enter and stay in Hungary during the traineeship, where applicable, and that they obtain all the documentation required by the authorities of the country in which they are employed/residing.

Applicants can only be offered a single contract for a given traineeship period. Applicants who decline a contract offer will be excluded from the on-going procedure. They may re-apply for a subsequent training period by submitting a new application, together with all supporting documents.

If an application is unsuccessful at any stage of the application process, depending on the reason for rejection, a candidate may re-apply for a subsequent training period. It is, however, necessary to submit a new application, together with the requested supporting documents. Please note that only the candidates selected for a traineeship will receive notification.

Trainees may not be recruited if a conflict of interest might occur, irrespective of the candidate's prior professional experience or nationality.

The keeping of files respects Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 regarding personal data, whether the applications gave rise to recruitment or not.

3.4 Other important information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have further questions, please contact the EIT via traineeship@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the Call for applications and the nature of your request. The full text the Rules governing the Traineeship Scheme of the EIT can be consulted at the EIT website.

4. General information

4.1 Equal opportunities

The EIT applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

4.2 Selection committee

A selection committee will be appointed to carry out the evaluation of applications to this vacancy. Please note that the Selection Committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden, and may lead to disqualification from the selection process.

4.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take a few months to be completed; further information about the status of the procedure will be published on the EIT website.

4.4 Conditions of employment

Trainees will be awarded a monthly grant. The net amount of the grant⁷ is, as of 1 March 2017, 812 EUR.

Sickness and accident insurances are compulsory and the EIT does not provide such coverage. Trainees must take out these insurances and proof of the coverage must be presented to EIT HR prior to the start of the traineeship period.

Upon presentation of the proper justification, disabled trainees may receive a supplement to their grant equal to a maximum of 50% of the amount of the grant.

Recruited trainees will get reimbursed the travel expenses incurred at the beginning and at the end of the traineeship. The basis of calculating this reimbursement shall be the most economical fare for a standard return route between the place of origin and Budapest. Airport transfers and taxi fares shall not be reimbursed. Where the distance is less than 400km, the cost of travel by private car can be reimbursed at the rate of 0.22EUR/km.

The trainee must complete a minimum of three months of the traineeship period to qualify for the reimbursement of travel costs. Trainees whose place of recruitment is less than 50 km from the place of employment are not entitled to the reimbursement of travel costs.

Request for reimbursement of travel expenses shall be submitted not later the 60 calendar days from the date of travel.

Grants awarded to trainees are not subject to the special tax regulations applying to officials and other servants of the European Union. Trainees are solely responsible for the payment of any taxes due on EIT grants by virtue of the laws in force in the country concerned. A certificate for tax purposes will be provided at the end of the traineeship period. This certificate should state the amount of grant received and confirm that tax and social security payments have not been made.

4.5 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the EIT ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

For more information concerning the protection of personal data, please consult the privacy statement (Annex III of the Rules governing the Traineeship Scheme of the EIT).

⁷ This estimate already includes a correction coefficient of 70%, currently applied to remuneration paid in Hungary. This correction coefficient is normally adjusted every year. The salary can be paid in Euro or in the local currency: Hungarian Forint (HUF).
